Evening of Service

Thursday, May 2, 2024 • 4:30–7:30 p.m.

Richards Building (RB) and Smith Fieldhouse (SFH)

Be part of a great spiritual legacy at BYU Women's Conference by helping us complete a variety of projects for members of our community in need. Together we will "succor the weak, lift up the hands which hang down, and strengthen the feeble knees" (D&C 81:5). We hope that as you participate in this extraordinary experience, you will leave the conference with a broader awareness of the needs of others and a greater desire to find and fill service needs in your own sphere of influence. As we joyfully immerse ourselves in the service of others, our own burdens will seem lighter and we will become more like our Savior.

Whether you're able to help for 20 minutes or 3 hours, we need you! Our service teams will be there to distribute project kits and give instructions as you help us complete the following projects:

Autism Caterpillars

Bookmark Kits

Christmas Stockings

Infant Fleece Blankets

Teddy Bears

Meal Kits

Deseret Book, Shadow Mountain Artists, and BYU Women's Conference present

An Evening of Entertainment

Doors open at 7:45 p.m. Your name badge is your ticket to all conference activities. Don't miss our evening of inspirational and uplifting music and messages highlighting some of your favorite LDS artists.
